

3.	Other DNC Native American Fund-Raising Efforts in 1995	317
4.	The DNC's Parallel Indian Fund-Raising Efforts Collide in August 1995	321
5.	DNC Indian Solicitations and Contributions by the Hudson Opponent Tribes in Late Summer and Fall 1995	327
6.	Summary and Evaluation of Tribal Opponents' National Democratic Contributions in 1995-96	333
K.	Secretary Babbitt's Various Statements and Testimony	352
1.	The Wall Street Journal July 12, 1996, Article	352
a.	Ickes's Office Examines the Hudson Matter Internally in Anticipation of the Wall Street Journal Article Alleging Potential Impropriety in the Hudson Decision	354
b.	Sen. McCain Writes Letters to Secretary Babbitt, President Clinton and Deputy Chief of Staff Ickes	356
c.	The White House Responds to Sen. McCain's Letters to the President and the Deputy Chief of Staff	359
d.	Babbitt Responds to McCain's July 1996 Correspondence ...	364
e.	McCain's Reaction to the Responses	368
2.	Secretary Babbitt's Oct. 10, 1997, Letter to Sen. Thompson	370
3.	Secretary Babbitt's Telephone Conversation with Sen. McCain Regarding Babbitt's Aug. 30, 1996, Letter	377
4.	Secretary Babbitt's Testimony Before the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee	379
5.	Secretary Babbitt's Testimony Before the House Government Reform and Oversight Committee	394
6.	Secretary Babbitt's Interviews During the DOJ Preliminary Investigation	398
7.	Secretary Babbitt's Grand Jury Testimony	401
III.	LEGAL ANALYSIS OF EVIDENCE	415
A.	There Is Insufficient Evidence to Warrant Criminal Prosecution of Any Conduct Related to the Hudson Casino Proposal, Including Secretary Babbitt's Congressional Testimony	415
1.	Babbitt's Testimony and Other Evidence Before the Senate Committee on Governmental Affairs Raised Questions About Whether the Hudson Casino Decision Had Been Criminally Corrupted by Campaign Contributions	415
2.	These Well-Founded Concerns About the Secretary's Testimony and the Facts and Circumstances Surrounding the Casino Decision Led to the Appointment of an Independent Counsel	417